Indian passport: five tourist-entry comparisons

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Malaysia	Up to 30 visa-free days; exemption ends December 31, 2026.
Kazakhstan	Up to 14 days per entry; 42 days in any 180-day period.

Five destinations in this thread. Entry documents and conditions apply.

Official rules: HCI Kuala Lumpur · Malaysia Immigration · Kazakhstan MFA · Photo: Kuala Lumpur (illustration)

Malaysia: 30 days, with arrival paperwork

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Stay	Up to 30 visa-free days; exemption ends December 31, 2026.
Documents	Passport valid 6 months, confirmed return ticket and hotel booking.
Arrival card	Submit Malaysia Digital Arrival Card 3 days before arrival.

Official rules: HCI Kuala Lumpur · Malaysia Immigration · Photo: Kuala Lumpur (illustration)

Thailand: the current exemption is 30 days

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Stay	30 visa-free days; maximum 2 entries per calendar year. Effective September 15, 2026.
Before arrival	TDAC within 3 days; accommodation and onward travel within 30 days.
Funds	THB 20,000/person or THB 40,000/family.

An extension of up to 30 days is discretionary.

Official rules: Thai embassies · Thailand MFA · Photo: Bangkok (illustration)

Kazakhstan: 14 per visit, 42 in 180

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Per entry	Up to 14 visa-free calendar days from border crossing.
Total limit	42 calendar days in any 180-day period.

Leaving and returning does not reset the 42-day allowance.

Philippines: the 14-day Indian-passport route

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Stay	14 visa-free days, non-extendable and non-convertible.
Documents	Hotel, funds and onward/return proof. Passport valid 6 months beyond the stay.

Transit-only trips still require a transit visa.

Official rules: philippine-embassy.org.sg · Photo: Manila (illustration)

Mauritius: visa-free, duration set at entry

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Visa	No visa required for Indian passports.
Tourist ceiling	Up to 6 months per calendar year; actual visit length is decided at entry.
Documents	Return ticket, confirmed stay and funds. Passport must outlast the stay.

Gainful activity requires a valid residence permit.