One passport, three different entry routes

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Nepal	Visa-free for Indian nationals.
Indonesia	B1 visa on arrival: IDR 500,000 for up to 30 days.
Vietnam	Advance eVisa, up to 90 days; single or multiple entry.

Five tourist-entry examples in this thread. These are different permission routes.

Official rules: Nepal Tourism Board · Indonesia Immigration · Vietnam Government · Photo: Kathmandu (illustration)

Nepal: visa-free with accepted identity documents

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Visa	Indian nationals do not need a visa.
Accepted ID	Valid Indian passport or Election Commission voter card.

Nepal Tourism Board says Aadhaar is not an accepted travel document.

Bhutan: visa exemption still has a permit and nightly levy

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Entry permit	Required for Indian visitors. Carry Indian passport or voter ID; stay follows approved permit dates.
Adult SDF	INR 1,200/night. Five inland nights = INR 6,000 SDF only.
Other costs	Accommodation and mandatory guide are additional.

Maldives: an arrival visa, with advance declaration

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Permission	Tourist visa issued on arrival; admissibility assessed at arrival.
Documents	MRZ passport valid at least 1 month, prepaid registered accommodation and return ticket.
Declaration	Each traveller submits free IMUGA within 96 hours before arrival.

Check the stay granted at arrival. IMUGA is a declaration, not an eVisa.

Indonesia: B1 tourist visa

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism
Rules checked October 20, 2026

B1 tourist visa	IDR 500,000; up to 30 days, one extension to 60 days total. Indian passports eligible.
Documents	Passport valid at least 6 months; onward/return ticket.

Online e-VOA is available. Use within 90 days of issue; this is not a 90-day stay.

Vietnam: advance approval and two entry options

Indian ordinary passport · Tourism

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Advance eVisa	Up to 90 days for Indian tourists.
Fees	USD 25 single-entry / USD 50 multiple-entry; no refund if refused.
Entry conditions	Valid passport; follow granted dates and use designated eVisa gates.

Official rules: en.baochinhphu.vn · Photo: Da Nang (illustration)