Five remote-work routes, five different tests

Remote-work route

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Japan	Digital Nomad: 6 months, no extension.
Thailand DTV	5-year multiple-entry validity; 180 days per entry.

Five routes in this thread. Worker, money, nationality and application-location requirements differ.

Thailand DTV: eligibility

Remote-work route

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Funds	Evidence of THB 500,000 and remote work or freelancing.
Duration	5-year multiple-entry visa; 180 days per entry. Extend once by up to 180 days, then leave and re-enter.
London only	Permanent residence: UK, Ireland or British Overseas Territories. Police clearance ≤6 months old.

Apply within London's consular jurisdiction.

Rules: Royal Thai Embassy, London ·
Photo: Bangkok

Malaysia DE Rantau: tech versus non-tech

Remote-work route
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Tech income	At least USD 24,000/year for freelancers or remote employees.
Non-tech income	USD 60,000/year minimum.
Pass + territory	3-12 months; up to 24 with renewal. Peninsular Malaysia and Labuan.

Employees need a foreign employer; freelancers may serve Malaysian clients. Contracts must start at least 3 months before application.

Japan: income, insurance and nationality

Remote-work route

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Annual income	At least JPY 10 million for remote work.
Insurance	Death, injury or illness cover; at least JPY 10 million for injury/illness treatment.
Stay	6 months, no extension.

Principal-applicant nationality list: US included; India absent. The spouse/child list differs.

Rules: Japan MOFA · Immigration Services Agency · Photo: Osaka

Costa Rica: evidence for the previous year

Remote-work route
Rules checked October 20, 2026

Monthly income	USD 3,000 individual / USD 4,000 with dependants, from overseas work. Evidence for the previous year.
Medical cover	At least USD 50,000 for the full stay; each dependant covered.
Estancia	1 year, renewable once.

Renewal requires at least 80 days physically in Costa Rica.

Barbados: income test and visa fee are separate

Remote-work route

Rules checked October 20, 2026

Expected income	At least USD 50,000 over the intended 12 months.
Fee after approval	USD 2,000 individual / USD 3,000 family; non-refundable.
Work + duration	12 months of remote work for overseas clients or employers.

Reapplication is possible after the year.